- unofficially consolidated text as of 1 January 2016 -

CHAPTER I
General provisions

Article 1. - The purpose of this decision is to set the tariff for the use of the radio spectrum due annually by the holders of the licenses granted under the law, the procedure of individualizing the tariff amount, as well as of collecting the respective amount.

Article 2 - For the purposes of this Decision, the following terms are defined as follows:

- a) licences - the authorization documents granting rights to use radio frequencies, according to the law;
- b) tariff - the amount due, according to the law, as a tariff for the use of spectrum, which is collected annually or quarterly, as the case may be;
- c) decision - the administrative act issued by the President of the National Authority for Management and Regulation in Communications, hereinafter referred to as ANCOM, specifying the amount of the tariff due by the license holders under the legislation in force, which is considered debt within the meaning of Government Ordinance no. 92/2003 on the Fiscal Procedure Code, republished, subsequently amended and completed;

- d) allotment/assignment documents - licences for the use of radio frequencies containing radio frequency allotments and their associated technical and operational parameters, broadcasting licenses and radio frequency assignment authorizations containing radio frequency assignments and their associated technical and operational parameters, based on which the amounts due as tariffs for the use of spectrum are calculated;
- e) effective height - the difference calculated on a given azimuth between the height of the radiation centre of the transmitter antenna (from the fixed location) above the sea level and the average height of the ground above sea level, calculated at a distance from the antenna site ranging from 1 to 15 km;
- f) maximum effective height - the maximum value resulting from the effective heights, calculated on all azimuths every 10 degrees around the antenna;
- g) effective radiated power - the product of the power supplied to the antenna and the antenna gain on different azimuths, minus the losses on the path between the transmitter output terminal and the input terminal of the antenna;
- h) maximum effective radiated power - value of the effective radiated power, calculated for the maximum gain of the antenna;

(2) The tariff stipulated in Chapter VIII¹ of the Annex is due for each licensed radio channel and applies separately to radio channels allotted on board a vessel and for radio channels allotted on board an aircraft.

(3) For paired bandwidths of the allotted radio channel wider or narrower than 1 MHz paired, the tariff provided in Chapter VIII¹ (1) or (3) of the Annex shall be multiplied by the number resulting from dividing the paired bandwidth of the allotted radio channel by the 1 MHz paired.

(4) For unpaired bandwidths of the radio channel allotted wider or narrower 1 MHz unpaired, the tariff provided in Chapter VIII¹ (2) or (4) of the Annex shall be multiplied by the number resulting from dividing the unpaired bandwidth of the allotted radio channel by the 1 MHz unpaired.

[Note: Article 21¹ was introduced by the Decision of the President of the National Authority for Management and Regulation in Communications no. 852/2014, published in the Official Journal of Romania no. 448 of 19 June 2014]

Article 22. - The tariff stipulated in Chapter IX of the Annex applies only to foreign natural persons/legal entities, for every occasional transmission.

Article 23. - (1) The tariff stipulated in Chapter IX indent 1 of the Annex applies to every transportable SNG (short news gathering) equipment and cumulated so that to obtain the number of calendar days during which occasional SNG transmissions are operated on the respective equipment. In the case of occasional SNG transmissions with atypical durations, which are not directly mentioned within Chapter IX indent 1 of the Annex, the tariff is determined by combining the existing tariffs at that indent, in order to obtain the number of calendar days during which occasional SNG type transmissions are achieved.

(2) The tariff stipulated in Chapter IX indent (2) of the Annex shall apply to each portable or transportable radio relay equipment, for each transmission frequency assigned to it and for each calendar day during which occasional ENG-OB (electronic news gathering and external broadcasting) transmissions are achieved by that equipment.

[Note: Paragraph (2) was amended by the Decision of the President of the National Authority for Management and Regulation in Communications no. 639/2013, published in the Official Journal of Romania no. 601 of 26 September 2013]

CHAPTER IV Transitional and final provisions

Article. 24. - The tariff due under the special broadcasting legislation for broadcasting licences which do not contain the necessary provisions for the individualisation of its amount shall be determined by reference to the elements contained in the technical authorizations.

Article. 25. - This Decision shall be published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part I and shall enter into force on the date of its publication.

Article. 26. - At the date of entry into force of this Decision, the Decision of the President of the Inspectorate General for Communications and Information Technology no. 686/2005 for approving the Tariff Setting Procedure and the List of tariffs for the use of the radio spectrum, due annually to the Inspectorate General for Communications and Information Technology, published in the Official Journal of Romania, Part I, no. 1166 of 22 December 2005, as subsequently amended and completed.
