

A Golden Compass for the End-users in an Interconnected World

»»» 22.10.2019, Bucharest

Maria Cristina Toma has been the manager of the National Museum of Maps and Old Books since December 2016. Mrs. Toma is a graduate of History and Art History at the Babeş-Bolyai University in Cluj Napoca and holds a master's degree in Art History at the same university.

Mrs. Toma believes that the contemporary museum should be equally interested in protecting the heritage, studying it and opening it to the public and technology. Mrs. Toma believes in educational values of cultural heritage and sees it as an inexhaustible resource that should be taken into account in the act of education and learning.

ANCOM
National Authority for Management and
Regulation in Communications of Romania